

FIRST CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY RESEARCH NETWORK SEMINAR

“PSYCHOLOGICAL INTERVENTIONS FOR ADULT PATIENTS: PERSPECTIVES FOR THE FUTURE”

COPENHAGEN, THURSDAY, MAY 17, 2018
THE GRAND HALL, FRUE PLADS 4, 1168 KØBENHAVN K

Program

8:30-9:00: Coffee and croissants

9:00: Welcome

- Moderator: Prof. Susanne Harder
- Introduction by Prof. Søren Kyllingsbæk, Head of the Department of Psychology
- Presentation of the program and the overall theme: Psychological interventions for adult patients: Perspectives for the future by Ass. Prof. Stig Poulsen

9:15-10:45: Theme 1: Personalized treatment within the mental health services

- Per Sørensen, PhD, Head of Stolpegaard Psychotherapy Centre: How to solve the dilemma between aiming for standardized high quality treatment and the aim of adapting the treatment to individual patient needs in an evidence based era?
- Prof. Michael Barkham, University of Sheffield, UK: Towards designing and delivering personalized psychological therapies
- Small group discussions
- Plenary discussion

10:45-11:00: Coffee break

11:00-12:30: Theme 2: Monitoring the treatment

- Sidse Arnfred, Ass. Prof, Research Consultant, Psychiatry West, Slagelse, Region Zealand: What are the challenges facing us in the implementation of outcome monitoring?
- Prof. Michael Barkham, University of Sheffield, UK: Towards better use of data to enhance treatment quality and patient experience
- Small group discussions
- Plenary discussion

12:30-13:30: Lunch

13:30-14:30: Theme 3: Psychotherapy research in Denmark

- Ass. Prof. Stig Poulsen, Department of Psychology, University of Copenhagen: Psychotherapy research in Denmark: Current collaborations and research themes
- Poster session with coffee and poster walk

14:30-15:50: Theme 4: Implementation of psychological interventions across sectors

- Anette Holm, Head of Social Services, Holstebro Municipality: How do we implement and integrate psychological interventions at various levels of specialization within and between different sectors?
- Prof. Michael Barkham, University of Sheffield, UK: Towards implementing personalized psychological interventions: A stepped care model across different sectors
- Small group discussions
- Plenary discussion

15:50-16:00: Farewell summary by Søren Kyllingsbæk, Stig Poulsen and Susanne Harder

